

Hymnal Timeline Scavenger Hunt

Directions

Thank you for downloading the One and All Rejoice hymnal timeline scavenger hunt! To get started, ask an adult to help you log into a computer or tablet. Open an internet browser and type cph.org/rejoice into the address bar. Next, click “Explore the One and All Rejoice hymn timeline” button or scroll to the timeline at the bottom of the page.

Navigating the Timeline

Use the white arrows on the left and right sides of the colored timeline to click through hymns. You can also click the hymn names below or drag the gray and white timeline boxes to move back and forth. When you click a hymn name on the timeline, the colored box above will show the hymn name, text writer, tune source and year of publication. Happy hymn hunting!

Hymnal Timeline Questions

1. What Bible verse does the 2020 hymn text for “Let Us Love One Another” come from?

5. Name the 2015 hymn from this section with a purple background.

2. What color is the background of the 2020 “Easter Canon”?

6. What season of the Church Year does purple represent?

3. Name the two (2) prayers written by Martin Luther and arranged by John Behnke in 2018.

7. What is the name of the 2013 Advent hymn written by Lisa M. Clark?

4. What is the name of the only hymn published in 2017?

8. Which prayer was turned into a song and published in 2008?

9. In 2001, who wrote “In Christ Alone”?

16. What season of the Church Year does blue represent?

10. What is the name of the Lenten (purple) hymn published in 1995?

17. Which hymn was written by Andrew Reed in 1817?

11. What is the tune source for “Listen God is Calling” published in 1979?

18. What season of the Church Year does red represent?

12. What is the name of the 1973 traditional Israeli canon?

19. What is the name of the oldest hymn on the timeline (Year 300)?

13. What hymn written in 1968 has a gold background?

20. Write the name, year and tune source of your favorite hymn on the timeline.

14. What season of the Church Year does gold represent?

15. Name the text writer of “People, Look East” published in 1928.